

National Galleries of Scotland Art Competition for Schools 2010

Scottish Widows is proud to be the sole sponsor of this competition for the fifth year running.

“As an Official Provider of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games, Scottish Widows is committed to nurturing and encouraging health and wellbeing through participation in both arts and sport.”

CATEGORY C Primary 4 to Primary 7
‘King or Queen of the Castle’

NATIONAL GALLERIES OF SCOTLAND
ART COMPETITION FOR SCHOOLS 2010

The aim of this competition is to encourage school children to interact with and be inspired by art works in the National Galleries' collection.

CATEGORY C Primary 4 to Primary 7 'King or Queen of the Castle'

Look at: Unknown Prince James receiving his son Prince Henry, in front of the Palazzo del Re c. 1747
Fernand Léger Study for 'The Constructors': The Team at Rest \(Etude pour 'Les Constructeurs': l'équipe au repos 1950
Joseph Mallord William Turner Bellrock Lighthouse

Think about: If you could build a house anywhere, where would it be?
Would it be old/modern, high/low, plain/fancy?
What kind of materials would you use, local or imported?
What kind of windows and doors would you have?
Why do we live in rectangular rooms in rectangular buildings? Would it not be more fun to live in round or wiggly buildings?
Some buildings, like the Pompidou Centre in Paris, have their insides on the outside (lifts and central heating systems) - is that a good idea?

Design: A fantastic dream home that you would love to live in. You can draw it from the outside or cut a cross-section through and show what it would be like from the inside. You might want to show a little bit of its surroundings.

Use: Any materials, techniques or processes (for example drawing, painting, printmaking, textiles, photography, computer aided design, collage, montage) to make your piece as long as each entry is two-dimensional. It can be A4 or A3 in size

Entries will be judged on:

- Originality and creativity
- Confident handling of materials
- Boldness and impact

CATEGORY C Primary 4 to Primary 7 'King of Queen of the Castle'

Unknown Prince James receiving his son Prince Henry, in front of the Palazzo del Re c. 1747

Here, we see a very grand building or façade (outside of a building). There are statues at the top, decorated pillars, ornate plaster work and lots of gold!

The building is huge and there are obviously some celebrations going on down below – the people look tiny in comparison.

This is the palace in Rome where Bonnie Prince Charlie and his brother Henry were born. The scene shows a celebration in honour of Henry being appointed as cardinal deacon. He is wearing shoes with red heels as cardinals did in the 18th century.

The palace in the painting has been lavishly 'dressed up' for the party and looks almost like a theatre set.

CATEGORY C Primary 4 to Primary 7 'King or Queen of the Castle'

Fernand Léger Study for 'The Constructors': The Team at Rest \(Etude pour 'Les Constructeurs': l'équipe au repos 1950\)

Five of the men seem to be working, while six others below look as if they are posing for a photograph. One of them holds papers. Could these be plans? Are they architects? The men seem to have travelled on their bicycles but this looks like a desert scene with sand and cacti. What could they be building in this strange place?

As a young man, Léger was apprenticed to an architect in Paris. He made a number of paintings showing construction workers. They were exhibited in the canteen of the Renault car factory in Paris because he was keen that his paintings should be seen by ordinary workers. This painting is three metres tall.

CATEGORY C Primary 4 to Primary 7 'King or Queen of the Castle'

Joseph Mallord William Turner Bellrock Lighthouse 1819

The lighthouse seems to rise up from nowhere out of the sea. The waves almost reach the very top of the building where we can see smoke coming out of a tiny chimney. The lightning is flashing, the boats are getting tossed about and the sailors on board must be in fear of their lives. What do you think the lighthouse keeper is doing inside?

Turner never actually visited this lighthouse, working instead from drawings made by other artists. The people who commissioned this painting knew that Turner was a quite mean man and would 'do nothing without cash and anything for it' but he was a brilliant artist. You can find out more about this very famous lighthouse and its two hundredth birthday celebrations on www.bellrock.org.uk

Rules and checklist for schools:

- READ THE RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS for each category very carefully. Sadly, each year high quality work is rejected as it does not conform to requirements.
- Complete a SEPARATE ENTRY FORM FOR EACH CATEGORY entered. This is essential for sorting purposes, particularly if work is to be returned.
- Work to be returned must be CLEARLY MARKED as such. No work will be returned unless the correct postage has been enclosed. Alternatively, work may be collected in person by arrangement.
- SIMPLE METHODS OF PRESENTATION should be considered and work (with the exception of group entries) is best kept flat rather than rolled.

Good luck! We hope that you and your pupils have a really enjoyable time participating in the National Galleries of Scotland Art Competition for Schools.

A SEPARATE ENTRY FORM MUST BE COMPLETED WITH DETAILS FOR EACH CATEGORY ENTERED
