The fee will include the following rights:

- Unlimited transmissions on the specified one channel (including digital channels e.g. BBC4)
- Digital broadcast and streaming rights - (for the time period licensed for the specified programme including BBC iplayer and another other 'on demand' services).

For your clarification: upon download of the programme, it can remain on the users' hardware until first accessed or 13 weeks from download, whichever is sooner, then the user has 60 days to view the programme after which the programme expires. The programme will only be available for download within the UK (period can be negotiated).

- Promotional use referring to trailers shown prior to the transmission of the programme. They would normally consist of a short montage of sequences which, on occasion, may feature an archive image.
